

CODE OF CONDUCT

JUST FOR LAUGHS

JUST FOR LAUGHS IS COMMITTED TO PROVIDING A SAFE SPACE FOR EVERYONE ATTENDING OUR EVENTS AND PRODUCTIONS.

In order to accomplish that purpose, all Just for Laughs activities must be exempt of abusive, inappropriate or provocative behaviors. Everyone participating in JFL events must treat artists, patrons and employees with equality, respect and dignity, no matter their gender, sexual identity, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, race or religion.

JFL adopts a zero-tolerance policy on harassment, in all its forms, whether it is verbal comments, actions or gestures that are repeated and hostile, that affect a person's dignity or psychological or physical integrity.

This policy extends to all those affiliated with a JFL event including its partners, venue staff, and contractors.

In addition, if you are the victim or witness of a prohibited act under this Code of Conduct involving an artist or an employee of JFL, or you wish to raise a concern, please email ZEROTOLERANCE@HAHAHA.COM. JFL will ensure they assess the situation and act accordingly. Please remember that notifying JFL does not constitute or replace a notification to local law enforcement.

All violations of the law should be reported to local law enforcement. For emergencies, immediately dial 9-1-1.
