

Jeremy Hotz
Marquis De Sad Tour
Comes To The Greatest Comedy City In The World -
Montreal

Saturday, September 30 • Théâtre Corona

Tickets on-sale Friday, June 2 at 10 AM

Montreal, May 29, 2023 - Just For Laughs and Evenko are pleased to announce that Jeremy Hotz is bringing his Marquis De Sad Tour to Montreal!

After our planet's lengthy battle with a pandemic, life and comedy returned to an almost normal capacity in 2022, and superstar funnyman, Jeremy Hotz (and his uber-famous dog, SHACKLETON) took to the road to make the fans laugh once again. Performing in front of sold out audiences from coast to coast, Jeremy Hotz proved once again that his unique brand of observational comedy is the remedy that the fans have deeply missed.

Based in Hollywood, California Jeremy Hotz maintains a deep love for his Canadian roots and makes a point to tour to as many Canadian cities as possible, and his one regret in 2022 was that he wasn't able to make it to Montreal. Through constant determination and continuous juggling, Jeremy Hotz has finally found a way to bring his Marquis De Sad Tour to Montreal on Saturday, September 30th, 2023 at Théâtre Corona.

"Montreal has a special place in my heart because Montreal and the Just For Laughs Festival are the reason why I have a career in comedy. They supported me before anyone else, and it's a city that I will always cherish" states Hotz. "But there's too much construction."

Tickets go on-sale Friday, June 2 at ticketmaster.ca.

About Jeremy Hotz

Since Jeremy's debut performance at The Just For Laughs Festival in 2002, Hotz has gone on to numerous tours and performances including "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, The Late Show With David Letterman", and motion pictures including "Speed 2" with Sandra Bullock, and "My Favorite Martian" with Jeff Daniels, as well as his role of "Jeremy" in "The Newsroom" for which Hotz won a Gemini Award.

The multi-award winning stand-up comedian, actor, and writer, fondly referred to as 'the master of misery' has an impressive career to date, Hotz's resume includes the Just For Laughs Comedy Festival (2002) in Montreal where he received a standing ovation after his debut performance at the festival's prestigious television gala. He returned to the Just For Laughs Comedy Festival several times where he was voted Best Performer by the "Globe and Mail" (2005) and Best in Fest by the "Montreal Gazette". With sold-out North American tours, plus headline performances in Europe and Australia, Jeremy Hotz continues to grab audiences with his completely original and confused, yet very astute, observational comedy.
